

SOCIAL SCIENCE SENTENCE FRAMES

NAME:

DATE:

TOPIC:

CAUSE AND EFFECT

The cause of _____ was _____ _____ had a profound effect on _____

I don't think _____ effected _____ because _____

The immediate effects of _____ included _____

The long-term effects of _____ included _____

I think _____ effected _____ because _____ _____ occurred, and consequently _____ _____ wasn't caused by _____ because _____

As a consequence of _____, _____

The factors that contributed to this situation were _____ _____ played a vital part in _____ _____ had little to do with _____

All of these factors contributed to _____

The reason for _____ was _____

USING SOURCES

Source A suggests _____

While one source suggests _____, this source shows _____

The text indicates that _____ was important to _____ because _____

A quote that would show the author's bias is _____

The perspective of this source is _____

The source was written from the perspective of _____. This could mean _____

The author's writing style is _____ which _____

The fact that this source is a primary document is important because _____

Since the author _____ he/she might be biased, because _____

EXAMINING PERSPECTIVES

_____ was different during this time period because _____

It is important to consider the time period when examining _____

This version of events shows _____

The different perspectives of the _____ show that _____

When the author was alive, many people thought _____ _____ wanted _____ because _____

During their lifetime _____

Biases such as _____ effected _____

There are conflicting accounts of this event. This is probably because _____

TAKING A STANCE

The most likely reason for _____ was _____ _____ is important because _____

The significant changes that occurred in this period were due to _____

It can be argued that _____

This event was key because _____ I think _____ was more significant than _____ because _____ Equally important was _____ _____ and _____ are similar because _____ _____ and _____ are different because _____ _____ remains significant because _____ _____ was a turning point in _____